3 SEP 1923

The General Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that on the 26th of June last, I went to Karapur to inspect the works relating to the ensuing Viceregal visit that are in progress and returned the same day to Mysore. As the distance of the to & fro journey comes to 86 miles, the Comptroller has disallowed the amount of this journey from my Travelling Allowance Bill for want of Government sanction as per G.O. No.Fl.4829-78/S&A. 16-22-2 dated 18-4-1923. I request therefore that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained for the Journey under reference and communicated to me at an early date to enable me to draw the amount on a supplemental bill.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Superintendent.
